commitment to human rights doesn't end there. His progressive work on treatment of criminals, payday loan caps and protections of the natural Oregon landscape are all worthy accomplishments.

FUN FACT!
PERCENTAGE OF MALE CANDIDATES WHO PREFERRED JOHNNY DEPP (77 PERCENT) TO VIN DIESEL (23 PERCENT)

Macpherson is the candidate best poised to reclaim Oregon's initiative petition process for the state and to ensure all Oregonians are equally protected and supported by our laws.

SECRETARY OF STATE
Kate Brown

Kate Brown has one of the most laudable records on equal rights initiatives of any candidate running this year. In her nearly 20-year career in the Oregon Legislature, Brown has championed comprehensive sex education, women's health and reproductive freedom and inclusion of transgender identity in the Oregon Equality Act, our state's new nondiscrimination law for sexual minorities. In a competitive race for a seat that has not been open for vote since 1984, Brown deserves the support of all fair-minded Oregonians.

TREASURER
Ben Westlund

Ben Westlund has worked both sides of the political fence, and his efforts as state treasurer offer the promise of bipartisan support on issues important to us all: education, health care and tax reform. Westlund has raised his voice for equal rights, drawing fire from Oregon Republicans for his support of same-sex domestic partnerships. A founder of the Oregon Cultural Trust and father of two, Westlund is committed to Oregon values and equity and will be a wise manager of our state's resources in this unstable economy.

U.S. TENT

U.S. SENATOR Jeff Merkley

Taken wholly, Jeff Merkley's body of nonprofit and legislative work has helped build and empower educated, healthy, equal communities in Portland and across the state. From banning public school

lunchroom junk food and expanding Oregon's ban on smoking to helping bring Oregon's equal rights laws for sexual minorities into the 21st century, this David Douglas High School alum has the most proven track record and is best poised to unseat incumbent Gordon Smith. 10
